Sen. Jelinek available for comments after State of the State

LANSING – Sen. Ron Jelinek will be available for comments immediately following the State of the State Address on Wednesday, Jan. 25.

He will meet local media attending the address in the House Appropriations Room on the third floor of the State Capitol. Media will be allowed to set up equipment beforehand as the room is being reserved for media before, during and after the State of the State Address.

If you are unable to attend the address, but would like comments from the senator, please call his office at 1-866-305-2121 to set up a time to speak with him.
